Fee Payment Guidelines

- Fees can be paid via bank transfer, UPI, net banking, or at the university finance counter.
- A late fee of ₹500/week is applicable after the due date.
- Fee receipts must be retained and submitted during semester registration.
- Students availing scholarships or paid internships must notify the accounts department for adjustments.
- No refunds after 15 days of admission, unless approved under exceptional cases.

Financial Assistance

- Merit-based, Need-based, and Women-in-Tech Scholarships are available.
- Paid Internships (from 2nd year) offer ₹3,000–₹10,000/month.
- Special installment plans may be considered for genuine financial hardship cases.

Paid Internship Impact on Fee Payment

Students starting from the second year may receive monthly stipends between ₹3,000 to ₹10,000 under Nexcore's Paid Internship Program. This enables students to partially or fully cover their semester fees.

Sample Case Studies

Case Study 1: Priya (Meritorious + Internship)

Priya scored 85% in her 12th and received a 50% merit scholarship for Year 1. From 2nd year, she secured an internship offering ₹7,000/month. Her earnings of ₹84,000/year helped cover most of her 2nd and 3rd year fees.

Case Study 2: Ramesh (Rural Background + Internship)

Ramesh comes from a rural background and received a need-based scholarship of ₹20,000/year. He also interned at ₹5,000/month from the 4th semester, covering ₹60,000 annually, allowing him to manage his semester fees independently.

Case Study 3: Meena (Female in Tech + Internship)

Meena joined the course under the 'Women in Tech' initiative and received a ₹30,000/year scholarship. With her ₹10,000/month internship from the final year, she fully paid her last year's tuition fees through earned stipend.
